

Little Ones

Language Lessons for Little Ones

Teaches alphabet letters - how to recognize, write, and differentiate, picture study, narration, poetry readings, more.

An informal introduction to language arts with a Charlotte-Mecklenburg-based teacher for preschool students.
By Sarah Green

Language Lessons for Little Ones

Little Ones 2

Consonant and short vowel sounds through reading long vowel with silent "e" words, picture study, narration, poetry, more.

Language Lessons for Little Ones

Little Ones 3

Complete phonics course, picture study, narration, copywork, poetry, more.

Very Young

Assumes a child is reading fluently, starts grammar instruction. Picture study, narration, copywork, creative writing instruction in poetry, more. Written directly to the child, no teacher prep.

Answer key available.

Language Lessons for the Very Young

Very Young 2

Reviews basic grammar, assuming a child has been introduced to subject, predicate, noun, verb, and basic capitalization and punctuation. Picture study, narration, copywork, writing instruction, more. No teacher prep.

Answer key available.

Language Lessons for the Elementary Child

Elementary

More advanced grammar, contractions, alphabetizing, synonyms, antonyms, compound and run-on sentences, letter writing, poetry writing, picture study, narration, copywork, more.

Answer key available.

Elementary 2

Reviews concepts from "Elementary," with more advanced lessons. Writing lessons are more advanced. Additional instruction in writing, picture study, narration, writing prompts, copywork, more.

Answer key available.

Language Lessons for the Elementary Child

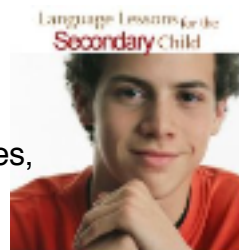

An informal course in the language arts with a Charlotte-Mecklenburg-based teacher for elementary students.
By Sarah Green

Secondary

Most advanced level of grammar instruction, assuming child has a good understanding of basics. Advanced writing in different venues, focusing on poetry and creativity. Picture study, intense copywork, narration, writing prompts, more.

Answer key available.

An informal course in the language arts with a Charlotte-Mecklenburg-based teacher for secondary students.
By Sarah Green

Language Lessons for the Secondary Child

An informal course in the language arts with a Charlotte-Mecklenburg-based teacher for secondary students.
By Sarah Green

Secondary 2

Last year of grammar instruction. Continued writing instruction and prompts. Copywork focuses on famous historical speeches. Picture study, narration, more.

Answer key available.

Language Lessons for the High School Student

High School

Assumes a child is fluent in English grammatical terminologies and application, and moves into editing practice. Dictation, picture study, and an intense course in story writing from start to finish.

Answer key available.

High School 2

Continued practice in editing, dictation, picture study, as well as a complete course in upper level writing instruction, focusing on essays, in different venues (narrative, expository, etc.)

Answer key available.

Language Lessons for the High School Student

An informal course in the language arts with a Charlotte-Mecklenburg-based teacher for high school students.
By Sarah Green